LEGENDARY COUNTRY HIPSTER GLEN CAMPBELL SHOWS HIS LOVE FOR 4-H CLUB

INDIO, CA - Legendary country hipster Glen Campbell, widely acclaimed for his timeless classics ("By The Time I Get To Phoenix," "Wichita Lineman") took five to show his love for 4-H Club reps who attended his recent performance at the Stage Coach Music Festival (the country cousin of Coachella). The Arkansas native is featured on the recently released Clover Country CD, an eclectic compilation featuring famous country stars that are also 4-H alumni, with a portion of proceeds benefiting the good works of 4-H Club. The project, which aims to generate awareness and support for 4-H, America's largest youth development organization, also features Sugarland, Dolly Parton, Martina McBride, Faith Hill, Reba McEntire, Vince Gill, Alabama, Luke Bryan and Johnny Cash, among others, and is currently available through www.4-hmall.org and Amazon.com. The project first came to fruition when 4-H internal representatives recognized that many 4-H alumni were high profile country artists that expressed an interest in continuing their support for 4-H. Clover Country was specifically conceived to include those recording artists with a 4-H background and history. EMI Music Special Markets was tapped to manufacture, distribute and assist in marketing the CD.

During his 45 years in show business, Glen Campbell has released more than 70 albums. He has sold 45 million records and racked up 12 RIAA Gold Albums, 4 Platinum Albums and 1 Double-Platinum Album. Of his 75 trips up the charts, 27 landed in the Top 10.

4-H is the nation's largest youth development organization, serving more than 6.5 million young people across America. National 4-H Council is the national, private sector, non-profit partner of the 4-H Youth Development Program and its parent, the Cooperative Extension System of the United States Department of Agriculture.
