4-H Coastal Futures

4th Quarter Project highlights

Lincoln City Team at Training November 9 and 10

Cloverdale Team at CYD Summit December 14

Members of Newport Team at Training November 9 and 10

Showcase presenters from Myrtle Point at the CYD Summit

Forum planning at the November 9 and 10 training

Cloverdale Youth having fun at the CYD Summit

At the November 9 and 10 training

Youth Adult Partnership Training
Developing Skills for Youth Engagement in Oregon's Coastal Communities

About the Program

The 4-H Coastal Futures Program provides training to youth/adult community leaders. The purpose of the training is to gather community input on the local issues affecting the future of youth in rural Oregon. Coastal Futures Program provides training to local youth/adult community leaders.