

Indoor Nature Game

Each player writes the word nature across the top of a piece of paper, each letter heading a wide column.

Players take turns as the leader. The leader calls a letter from the word nature and a category (such as flowers, birds, fish, and forest animals). All the players write down as many names from that category, starting with the letter chosen, as quickly as they can. The player with the most names is the new leader.

Grades 4-5