LEADERSHIP
WASHINGTON
FOCUS
Delegate Orientation
This Orientation Will Cover...

- LWF Schedule Highlights
- 4-H Youth Conference Center features
- Forms and documents delegates should have filled out or read over before arrival
Monday

• Opening ceremony
  Get pumped up and ready to go as you gather with delegates from all across the country to kick off an Awesome time in and around Washington, D.C.

• Swap Shop
  A spin-off of the traditional 4-H Pin Trade, Delegations will decorate clothes pins to represent their home state or region as well as bring items to swap with other delegates.
Tuesday

- Capitol Hill & Library of Congress
  Explore Capitol Hill and all that it has to offer, seeing how Congressmen and Congresswomen collaborate to come to decisions and change our country. Right across from the Capitol Building, explore the Library of Congress, the largest library in the world.

- Nightview of Washington D.C.
  Visit several Capitol City favorites and see them in a whole new light, moonlight!
Wednesday

• Speak Up! Speak Out!
  Discover the power of your voice during this interactive presentation that uses the works of some of our nation’s greatest orators as inspiration

• White House, American History Museum, and the National Archives
  Our leadership curriculum is taken to the next level as we get to see the White House, American History Museum, and the National Archives in order to explore the profiles of some of our country’s most prominent leaders
Thursday

• Udvar Hazy Air & Space Center
  Get up close and personal with some of our nation’s finest innovations as we explore the relationship between creativity and leadership

• The Amazing Race
  Put all of your newly acquired leadership skills to the test as you and your team make your way through this full immersion leadership challenge
• Banquet
  Enjoy the program’s final dinner with your team as presentations and recognitions from the week are made.

• Closing Ceremony
  The program concludes as everyone comes together and reflects on the lessons learned as well as looks to the future they will shape at home in their clubs, communities, our country and around the world.
Delegate Expectations

• Full participation
  – LWF is full of awesome learning and social opportunities. We expect that every delegate participate fully in all aspects of the program.

• Respect
  – During this once in a lifetime opportunity, delegates will interact with people who may have different views from them and visit some of our nation’s most sacred sites. We expect all delegates to treat one another and their surroundings with the utmost respect.

• Dress code
  – During LWF we adhere to a dress code to insure that all delegates accurately represent the prestige of their delegation, 4-H and the LWF program.
Dress Code

Next to each day on the schedule you will find a dress code key. This key tells you what level of dress is most appropriate for the day.

Casual (c)
Clothes you would normally wear. T-shirt, jeans, shorts, and tennis shoes or sandals

Business Casual (bc)
Clothes you would wear in a business/office setting; dress slacks and collard shirt for men, same for ladies as well as skirts, blouses, etc.
Dressy(d)
Clothes you would wear to a nice restaurant or special occasion. Very similar to business casual.

LWF
Your blue LWF shirt and casual pants.

LWF involves a lot of walking, make sure you bring comfortable shoes
Participant Forms

• Delegates should Read over and fill out the following before Arriving in Washington, D.C.-
  – Media Release Form - A release to allow 4-H to possibly publish pictures of you on the National 4-H Website. Smile your Famous!
  – Code of Conduct - So that youth understand what is expected of them while visiting Washington, D.C.
    • Fully Participate in all Workshops, and Committee Meetings at LWF
    • Be respectful to all memorials and sites visited during the trip.
    • Overview of LWF Dress Code so you can pack appropriately.
Delegate Rooms

Delegates to CWF will be provided with hotel like accommodations, including two bunk beds per room, private restroom facilities, and a TV in every room.
Food & Fun

Game Room
Always popular, the game room in J.C. Penny Hall, complete with Pool Tables, Air Hockey Tables, and Arcade Games.

Clover Café
Chef Zubear will prepare some of the Finest cuisine in the D.C. Metropolitan Area for delegates to enjoy in a Cafeteria like setting with full service food bar, salad bar, and soup.
We look forward to welcoming you this summer!