4-H Youth in Action Awards – Sample Application Videos

Video Submission Instructions

An important responsibility of 4-H Youth in Action pillar winners is to serve as spokespeople for their pillar area, sharing their 4-H story. As such, it is important that the pillar winners demonstrate excellence in communication and ability to present themselves. Applicants should provide a link to a 60-second video answering the following prompt:

- Finish this statement: “4-H has inspired me to….” and address how 4-H has encouraged or inspired you in your work in the pillar area.

Your video should:

- Feature only you speaking (no other speakers or visuals)
- Be recorded with a simple recording device/smart phone. No special equipment or editing expected.
- Be uploaded to YouTube & be viewable by anyone with the link.

Sample Videos

Below are links to sample application videos from the 2019 4-H Youth in Action Pillar Award Winners. Use these videos to get an idea of how to complete the video submission. As you’ll see in these samples, the videos do not need to be heavily edited, and should only feature the youth speaking on the screen.

- Agriculture: Addy Battel
- Civic Engagement: Mason McClintock
- Healthy Living: Elisabeth Watkins
- STEM: Clyde Van Dyke